

The Policies and Procedures are presented on this page for your convenience. If you have any questions, please contact us at info@wellanimalinstitute.com.

Participants in the Well Animal Institute Program are welcome to submit letters or certificates of completion in other areas of complementary medicine from other educational programs.

We do not require electives but we feel the more you know, the better you can serve animals. Rarely does any single modality stand alone. It is best to have many resources available. We will discuss other modalities during your week at the Well Animal Institute.

Participant Enrollment Policy - Hands-On Courses

The number of course participants is limited based on space. The number of students per course will range between 2-6, with additional Instructors or Certified Assistants attending as needed.
